Itineraries and Trip Information

Due to currency fluctuations, rising costs and changing travel conditions overseas, Planting Hope Inc. reserves the right to modify the price and itinerary if deemed necessary. We reserve the right to alter itineraries if that will enhance the experience of our travelers or if unforeseen circumstances force us to do so.

Cancellations and Refunds

Cancellation by participant

Trip cancellation insurance is strongly recommended.

If you have to cancel your trip for any reason, Planting Hope, Inc, must be notified in writing or by email immediately. The cancellation will be effective upon receipt of the written request in the Planting Hope, Inc, office at 1 Granite Street, Montpelier, Vermont.

The program deposit is non-refundable. If tickets have been purchased, the cost of airfare is nonrefundable. The traveler must negotiate with the ticket issuer for airline credit and change fees will apply.

If the cancellation occurs more than 61 days prior to the scheduled departure date, the total program fee paid to date, less the deposit, will be refunded.

If the cancellation occurs 60 days or less prior to the scheduled departure date, on or after the scheduled departure date, no portion of the program fee will be refunded. No refunds will be made for unused portions of the program or because of the participant's failure or inability to participate in the Planting Hope, Inc, program. The trip participant is solely responsible for airfare or other travel fees, charges, expenses or penalties, that might result from a cancellation of or change in program, whether the participant cancels or makes the change or if the trip is cancelled or altered by Planting Hope, Inc,

Travel arrangements through Planting Hope, Inc, are purchased as a package, and therefore we regret that there can be no refunds on unused hotel rooms, meals, sightseeing, ground transportation or other services booked.

If a participant has to cancel because of illness, injury, personal crisis or death of the participant or a family member 90% of their refundable paid fee will be reimbursed.

Illness or injury of the participant or family member.

Injury or illness must be so disabling as to reasonably cause a trip to be cancelled or interrupted, or which results in medically imposed restrictions, as certified by a Physician at the time of loss, preventing continued participation in the trip. A Physician must advise cancellation of the trip on or before the Scheduled Departure Date. Trip participants need to provide Planting Hope with a physician's letter regarding canceling travel.

If the trip participant must cancel or interrupt his/her trip due to Injury or Illness of a Family Member not traveling with the trip participant, it must be because their condition is life-threatening, as certified by a Physician or because they require the trip participant's care.

Cancellations by Planting Hope Inc.

If we are forced to cancel an internship due to conditions beyond our control, our liability is limited solely to the program fee. Planting Hope Inc. cannot be held responsible for financial losses incurred due to the imposition of a charge by airline carriers on partially or totally non-refundable tickets. It is our sincerest desire to operate all trips offered on our website; consequently cancellations by us are a matter of last resort, usually at 30 days prior to departure dates. Refunds limited to the above conditions apply.

Planting Hope Inc. reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to reject an individual at any time prior to departure, or to cancel the Planting Hope Inc. program in which the participant is scheduled to participate.

In the unlikely event of such a cancellation, or if the participant has been rejected, the total program fee paid to Planting Hope Inc. will be refunded, unless the cancellation is due to non-payment by the agreed upon due date. Other than such a refund, Planting Hope Inc. will not be responsible to the participant for any other refund, costs, interest, liability, or damages of any kind.

Planting Hope Inc. also reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to remove from a program, at the participant's own expense, anyone whose behavior is such that it would create hazard to him or herself or others, or otherwise impact the enjoyment of the other tour travelers, the guides, host families and/or host communities.

Insurance

Participants should consider purchasing insurance to cover the cost of air fare in case of trip cancellation.

Planting Hope expects each traveler to have their own travel insurance for health and medical emergencies. Purchase of travel insurance is not mandatory for adults but we strongly suggest that you do so. It is advisable to check your current health insurance policy for its overseas applications. Youth traveling without a family member or guardian must be covered by international travel insurance. The trip information packet will provide further information. Longer-term volunteers (one month or more) will pay an additional $200 to Planting Hope, as an emergency reserve to be refunded if unused.

Age Restrictions

Participation in Planting Hope programs is determined by interest and ability to fully participate in the experience. The minimum age for internship participation is 18 as of the departure date. Younger participants must be approved by the Planting Hope directive.

Passports and Visas

A valid passport is required for international travel with an expiry date of at least six months after the tour's end date. All clients are responsible for obtaining their own visas, which are available at the immigration section of the airport upon arrival. A 3-month tourist card/visa is mandatory and available for $10 US for travelers with US passports. The visa application will be given to you on the plane before landing in Managua.

Planting Hope Inc. reserves the right to take photographs or video during the operation of any trip or part thereof, and to use the resulting images or video for promotional purposes. By participating in a Planting Hope internship program or Service Learning trip, you agree to allow your image to be used for such purposes, without compensation. If you prefer that your image not be used, you must identify yourself to the leader at the beginning of the tour. This does not apply to photographs that you or other travelers take on the tour.

Medical Requirements

Good physical and mental health is essential for the enjoyment of Planting Hope Service Learning trips or internships. By forwarding the Registration Form, the participant certifies that he/she does not have any physical, psychological or other condition of disability that would create hazard for him or herself or other travelers.

It is essential that any participant with a medical condition requiring regular treatment or which may be affected by rigorous activity, altitude, smog, heat, cold, etc., notify Planting Hope Inc. in writing in advance of travel. Medical insurance is mandatory for these participants. The judgment of the local guide shall make the ultimate determination of an individual's fitness to embark upon or continue the program. Planting Hope Inc. reserves the right to decline to accept anyone on the trip. Planting Hope Inc. also reserves the right to remove from the trip, at the participant's own expense, anyone whose condition is such that it would create hazard to him or herself or others, or otherwise impact the enjoyment of other passengers on the trip as well as the guides, trainers, host families and/or host communities.

Responsibility

Planting Hope Inc. acts only as the agent for the passenger in regard to travel whether by railroad, motor-coach, private car or van, bicycle, boat, ferry, aircraft or any other conveyance, and assumes no liability for injury, damage, loss, accident, delay, irregularity or additional costs resulting directly or indirectly from any of the following causes: weather, failure of any means of transportation to comply with schedules, quarantines, strikes, civil disturbances, theft, government regulations or changes in transport or lodging beyond the reasonable control of Planting Hope Inc. Planting Hope and its Board of Directors and employees cannot be liable for any delay, mishap, inconvenience, expense, irregularity, or damage through the negligence or default of any company or individual engaged in providing these services.

We reserve the right to change any itinerary at any time when it is deemed advisable for the safety of the volunteer or to comply with governmental restrictions. Planting Hope Inc. also reserves the right to cancel any trip prior to departure upon the refund of all program payments received, which shall release Planting Hope Inc. from any further liability.

It is the responsibility of every traveler to be informed about the most current travel advisories. Please check the US Department of State's travel website: <http://www.travel.state.gov/> or call 1-888-407-4747. The traveler assumes all risk of personal injury, death or property damage that may arise out of events like those advised or warned against.

Planting Hope Inc. reserves the right to withdraw a program or any part of it, to make such alterations in the itinerary or with the trip inclusions as it deems necessary or desirable and to pass on to trip participants any expenditures or losses caused by delays or events out of its control.
